1. VET STUDENT OUTCOMES SNAPSHOTS PUBLISHED TODAY

As part of an ongoing process to improve the availability of information around post-training student outcomes, the Department has developed the VET Student Outcomes Snapshots.

The Snapshots are intended to better inform decision-making on both the supply and demand side of the vocational education and training (VET) market and the current format has been developed in consultation with providers, incorporating suggestions received via feedback sessions held throughout the year.

The VET Student Outcomes Snapshots are being published on the Smart and Skilled website today at smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/for-students/student-outcomes-and-indicators. Their availability will allow stakeholders to make more informed decisions when choosing and delivering VET.

Please refer any questions you may have regarding the Snapshots to vetstudent.outcomes@det.nsw.edu.au.
